

Community Meetings with Whiting Refinery Leaders

Over the last few weeks, the bp Whiting Refinery has experienced some operational issues that have drawn understandable attention and concern from our neighbors in Northwest Indiana.

We want to hear from you directly.

Residents from Whiting-area communities are invited to join us for a series of small group meetings with leaders of the refinery. We'd like to provide an update and overview of the recent issues and bp's response, hear what's on your mind, and answer questions.
